

2010 Karaoke Contest Rules

Contestants will be judged on singing ability, technical difficulty of the songs, personal appearance. Contact with the audience as well as the judges, presentation, and overall performance.

Duets will not be allowed. Once a position in the final competition has been achieved, the performers will no longer be eligible to re-enter a preliminary contest until the following year. Only one entry in the final competition is allowed. The entry fee is $15 per contestant, per contest.

The Levy County Fair 2010 will be awarding prizes as follows:

First Place	$500
Second Place	$250
Third Place	$125

Pre-qualification contests and the final competition are for amateurs only. Professional singers are asked not to enter. For Purposes of these contests a professional is a person who receives money to sing. By signing the registration form you are stating that you are not a professional singer. There will be grievance procedures that may be filed if it is discovered you are a professional and any and all prizes and prize monies will be forfeited.

Contestants will sing two (2) songs for each preliminary competition, and One (1) song for the finals, everyone should have a back up selection ready as well, in case of a "sing off" if there is a tie score.

Contestants may use their own karaoke discs, or select from the music library of Star Quality Entertainment, which is updated monthly. Only original karaoke CD's may be used. (No Copies)

Contestants are asked to arrive early enough to fill out entry forms which will contain a statement of eligibility, as well as a permission waiver for publicity releases. Any contestant under the age of 18 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian to sign the required legal forms. Forms may also be downloaded from our website and filled out before the competition however parents or guardians must be present to compete.

First, Second, and Third place winners of the 2008 Levy County Fair final karaoke competition are not eligible to enter the 2010 contest.
